KAPLAN LAW FIRM ANNOUNCES TWO NEW ASSOCIATE HIRES

(Austin) – Kaplan Law Firm, PLLC is pleased to announce the hire of two new attorneys, Eleanor D’Ambrosio and Marissa Stewart. Both D’Ambrosio and Stewart will assist with the Firm’s growing civil rights pre-trial litigation docket, handling cases in both state and federal courts across Texas.

“Both Eleanor and Marissa are outstanding additions to the team, and bring a wealth of knowledge and experience. They are both eager and ready to seek justice for our clients,” said Austin Kaplan.

Eleanor D’Ambrosio received her law degree from the University of Texas School of Law and was admitted to the State Bar of Texas in November 2015. While in school, she was named a Public Service Scholar for her commitment to promoting public interest law and served as the student liaison to the board of the Austin Young Lawyers Association. An Austinite for the last 13 years, Eleanor worked for both Rep. Donna Howard and former Rep. Mark Strama before attending law school. Eleanor is excited to join the team here at Kaplan Law Firm representing employment and civil rights clients.

Marissa Stewart joins Kaplan Law Firm as a recent graduate from Texas Tech School of Law where she graduated cum laude. In June, Marissa returned to her home city of Austin where she was admitted to the State Bar of Texas in November. Marissa is dedicated to helping clients achieve their desired outcomes through meticulous work and attention to detail. She looks forward to a bright future representing clients seeking justice for employment and civil rights violations.
